The City School

PAF Chapter, Junior Section

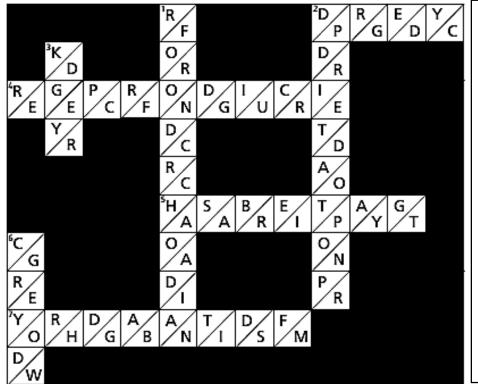

Comprehensive worksheet Science Year-4 H.W 3

Q1. Read the following examples of thermal equilibrium. State whether the given statement are examples of thermal equilibrium or not . Write (TE) for the correct example.

- 1) A hot cup of tea is kept on a kitchen table for 20 minutes.
- 2) Blowing a balloon.
- 3) Turning on AC in a room.
- 4) Mixing of hot and cold water.
- 5) Cutting a cake with knife.

Q3) Look at the clues and answer the crossword by shading out the wrong letters in each word.

Across

- 2 An animal that is eaten by other animals.
- 4 When living things make more living things they.
- 5 The place where an animal or plant lives.
- 7 A living thing.

Down

- 1 A diagram showing who eats who in a habitat.
- 2 An animal that hunts and eats other animals.
- 3 A diagram that helps you work out the name of something.
- 6 When a plant or animal gets bigger it is said to .