

English Blog Worksheet – Year 4

Q1. Make an advertisement for any one of the following topics: (Make your advertisement interesting using slogans, special offers, discounts and relevant pictures/ images)

1. A new gaming zone opened in your area.
2. A Beach Clean-up Campaign.
3. A book store opening at a mall.
4. A new fast food chain launched for the first time in your city.

Q2. Who am I? (Novel)

- a. I used to treat David very cruelly. I even used to beat him while he was a kid.
- b. I had red cheeks and nursed David.
- c. I had an annoying habit of twisting my body like a snake.
- d. I lived in a cottage located in Dover.
- e. I was the owner of school of Canterbury.
- f. I had a lot of debts to pay and was sent to prison for the same reason.

Q3. Make sentences:

1. Apologized
2. Successful
3. Business
4. Journey
5. Threatened
6. Pleasant
7. Pious
8. Shapeless
9. Tremendous
10. Mysterious

Q4.

Subjects and Predicates

The subject tells whom or what the sentence is about.

Example: Did you know the little boy in the front row?

The predicate of a sentence tells something about the subject.

Example: Did you know the little boy in the front row?

Directions: Underline the subject one and the predicate twice.

1. The TV show about the strange bird was very informational.
2. The strange bird from South America is a Hoatzin.
3. This bird has a bright blue head and big, red eyes.
4. The strangest thing about the bird is its colorful plume on the top of its head.
5. The Hoatzin is a unique bird in many ways.
6. They have two claws on each wing.
7. When young, the nestlings use these claws for protection.
8. When threatened, they fall from their nest.
9. They use these claws to climb another tree for safety.
10. An adult Hoatzin does not use the claws for anything.
11. They are the only bird that can turn cellulose from leaves into sugar.
12. This process of turning cellulose to sugar makes them smell bad.
13. This smell from the fermentation process earned them the name "Stink Bird."
14. They cannot fly very well.
15. They have a callus on their chest to keep them from falling over when full.
16. The size of their stomach after eating makes it difficult to fly.

ANSWER KEY

Q2. Who am I? (Novel)

- a. I used to treat David very cruelly. I even used to beat him while he was a kid. (Mr. Murdstone)
- b. I had red cheeks and nursed David. (Peggotty)
- c. I had an annoying habit of twisting my body like a snake. (Uriah Heep)
- d. I lived in a cottage located in Dover. (Betsy Trotwood)
- e. I was the owner of school of Canterbury. (Dr. Strong)
- f. I had a lot of debts to pay and was sent to prison for the same reason. (Mr. Micawber)

Q4)

Subjects and Predicates

The subject tells whom or what the sentence is about.

Example: Did you know the little boy in the front row?

The predicate of a sentence tells something about the subject.

Example: Did you know the little boy in the front row?

Directions: Underline the subject one and the predicate twice.

1. The TV show about the strange bird was very informational.
2. The strange bird from South America is a Hoatzin.
3. This bird has a bright blue head and big, red eyes.
4. The strangest thing about the bird is its colorful plume on the top of its head.
5. The Hoatzin is a unique bird in many ways.
6. They have two claws on each wing.
7. When young, the nestlings use these claws for protection.
8. When threatened, they fall from their nest.
9. They use these claws to climb another tree for safety.
10. An adult Hoatzin does not use the claws for anything.
11. They are the only bird that can turn cellulose from leaves into sugar.
12. This process of turning cellulose to sugar makes them smell bad.
13. This smell from the fermentation process earned them the name "Stink Bird."
14. They cannot fly very well.
15. They have a callus on their chest to keep them from falling over when full.
16. The size of their stomach after eating makes it difficult to fly.