

Science Blog Worksheet – Grade 3

Q1. Correct the underlined words and re-write the statements:

a. The stem absorbs water and minerals from the soil.

b. Plants need air, water and darkness to make food.

c. Caterpillars eat the roots of plants.

d. A fair test is when you change all the things in an experiment.

e. The leaves anchor the plant and help it to stay in one place.

Q2. Fill in the blanks:

a. _____ is when we bring water to a field.

b. _____ are nutrients for plants that help them to grow well.

c. The tallest stem belongs to the _____ tree.

d. Trees have thick stems called _____.

e. _____ absorb water and minerals from the soil.

Answer key:

Q1. Correct the underlined words and re-write the statements:

a. The stem absorbs water and minerals from the soil.
The roots absorb water and minerals from the soil.

b. Plants need air, water and darkness to make food.
Plants need air, water and sunlight to make food

c. Caterpillars eat the roots of plants.

Caterpillars eat the leaves of plants.

d. A fair test is when you change all the things in an experiment.

A fair test is when you change only one thing in an experiment.

e. The leaves anchor the plant and help it to stay in one place.
The roots anchor the plant and help it to stay in one place.

Q2. Fill in the blanks:

- a. Irrigation is when we bring water to a field.
- b. Fertilisers are nutrients for plants that help them to grow well.
- c. The tallest stem belongs to the Redwood tree.
- d. Trees have thick stems called trunks
- e. Roots absorb water and minerals from the soil.