

Science worksheet

Year 3

Q1) Fill in the blanks with the correct answer.

- a) Birds eat small _____ to help break food inside them. (stones, seed)
- b) _____ is used to make roof tiles. (marble, slate)
- c) Very small stones are called _____ (sand, gravel)
- d) Rocks are made of _____. (grains, clay)
- e) The different colours in rocks are different _____. (minerals, sediments)
- f) Molten rock inside the Earth is _____. (magma, lava)
- g) _____ soils have very tiny particles that are too small to see.(Clay, Sandy)
- h) _____ turns into marble when it is heated and squashed. (limestone, Granite)
- i) Sandstone is made of rounded grains of _____. (quartz, crystals)
- j) _____ contains same minerals as granite.(Gneiss, Graphite).

Q2) Write 1 difference between sandstone and marble.

Answers:

- a) Stones
- b) Slate
- c) Gravel
- d) Grains
- e) Minerals
- f) Magma
- g) Clay
- h) Limestone
- i) Quartz
- j) Gneiss

2) sandstone wears away quickly and marble does not.